

in regards to telephone privacy act. Don't pass any bill that would lessen or change Indiana Privacy Law. We were receiving ten to fifteen calls a week. Since the privacy law took effect our calls have dropped to less than one call a month. Our state law is working very good and doesn't need to be changed in any way